

EIGHTEEN YEARS IN PRISON—THE VERDICT IS ACCEPTED, AND THE MOTION TO SET IT ASIDE WITHDRAWN—A TALK WITH THE PRISONER.

The Hastings Court room was crowded yesterday by spectators anxious to know if the Judge would pass sentence on W. J. Faherty, who stood convicted of killing Charles H. Childs on the night of the 7th of June. At a little after 11 o'clock the prisoner was brought into the court-room by Deputy-Sergeant Briggs, and had a brief consultation with Mr. John S. Wise, his counsel.

A MOTION WITHDRAWN.

When the clerk called the prisoner before the court and asked if he had anything to say why sentence should not be passed, he replied, without any visible emotion, "I have nothing whatever to say." Mr. Wise, the prisoner's counsel, then arose and withdrew the motion to set aside the verdict which he had made on the day previous. The Judge then passed the sentence in accordance with the verdict of the jury, and the prisoner was remanded to jail, there to await his transportation to the penitentiary for eighteen years.

The Dispatch reporter approached Faherty after the sentence had been pronounced, and found him cheerful and courteous. He said: "I am in a bad way, but I can blame nobody but myself. I had no earthly idea that I had killed my friend. It was a great mistake, and I feel that I must suffer the consequences. There is one thing certain, though: I will certainly behave myself wherever I may be placed."

The prisoner will be taken to the penitentiary this morning.

BOY DROWNED.—Yesterday afternoon about half-past 4 o'clock a boy named John Philip Daulton, who lived at No. 314 South Bridge street, fell from the Tenth-street bridge into the canal lock while playing with a companion, and was drowned.

The body was recovered and viewed by the coroner, who deemed an inquest unnecessary under the circumstances.

UNLAWFUL SHOOTING.—Patrick Hannon, charged with unlawful shooting at Owen Murtha in Murphy's bar-room, was found guilty, and fined one hundred dollars by the jury. Judge Guigon added six months in jail.

Four or five of the colored women who were before the court got into a row with the grand jury, and were taken into custody by the police.

POLITICAL ARTILLERY.—That popular and efficient organization the Conservative Campaign Club have just had their gun-campaign and gun repaired in a fine and skillful manner, and are now ready for action as though it were a piece of art.

It is highly gilded, and looks as though it were anything else but steel. The painting work was voluntarily done by Oliver Mountcastle, of Company A, Richmond Fire Department, and is acknowledged on all sides to be one of the most beautiful pieces of work done in this city for years.

The club will fire one hundred guns as soon as the nominee of the St. Louis Convention is announced.

CONCERT AT ASSOCIATION HALL.—Miss Richmond and Miss Fitzgibbon design giving a concert on Monday next at the Association Hall. They will be supported by Mr. John D. Last winter these two ladies gave a most acceptable concert in Baltimore, and were rewarded by a fine house and a shower of compliments on all quarters. No doubt they will be similarly received next Monday in this city.

FINAL EXERCISES AND DISTRIBUTION OF MEDALS AND DIPLOMAS—A VERY ENJOYABLE DAY WITH THE CHILDREN AND GROWN-UPS.—INTERESTING—A ADDRESS FROM DR. CURRY AND MAJOR CURRY—OTHER SCHOOL MATTERS—WINDING UP OF THE TERM AT THE HIGH SCHOOL TO-DAY, &c., &c.

With one exception—that of the High School—final exercises and distribution of medals and diplomas to the proficient pupils of the public schools were concluded yesterday. The weather during the past week has been bright and warm, and everything has passed off very pleasantly. This morning, from 10 to 12 o'clock, the closing exercises of the High School will take place.

Leigh School.

Rev. W. B. McGilvray is principal of this school, and is assisted by a corps of first-rate teachers, whose pupils have made excellent progress during the year. The exercises yesterday morning at the Theatre were very interesting, and it is judged from the vast crowd present it is fair to presume that the Leigh school must have many warm friends.

THE EXERCISES.

were very interesting, but the programme rather too long for some of the little ones who became very tired. The exercises were of the following character: "Praise the Lord," the "Dying Atheism," a recitation by a pupil in Miss Whiting's class, "Centennial Song," by a number of little ones of Miss Savage's class; "Glee," by the entire group; "The Mountain Hockaday's class," "The Mountain Hock," chorus; "Walking Through the Horn," song and dance, by a pupil of Miss Whiting's class; Calisthenic Exercise, by Miss Wallace; and a most striking and interesting feature of the entertainment.

There were fully fifteen hundred persons present to enjoy the exercises, and but one thing happened to mar the pleasure of the occasion. Some wicked person in the upper gallery threw an immense tin can, which was broken, and caused some confusion. Among the gentlemen who occupied seats on the stage were Rev. J. L. M. Curry, D. R. Curry, Dr. Dickinson, Rev. P. A. M. Curry, Major Alfred R. Courtney, Major A. R. Courtney, Mr. M. M. Curry, Secretary, and others.

At the conclusion of the exercises Mr. McGilvray read the regulations of the School Board, and the prize list, and introduced Rev. Dr. Curry, who delivered the medals.

Dr. Curry in addressing the children and parents, remarked that as it was his first appearance on the boards and before the footlights, he expected he had the kind indulgence of the audience. He then proceeded to make one of his chaste and delightful addresses, in which he paid a glowing compliment to Mayor Kelley, and to the public schools, and to the children, and to the parents, and to the community.
